Bang-Jensen Report Denied

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Central Intelligence Agency last night disputed a report that late-Povl Bang-Jensen, Danish diplomat, once tried in vain to CIA Director Allen Dulles to tell him about alleged Soviet espionage.

Allen Dulles, Dec. 16, 1937, that time, he did not indicate to him that he had any information about Soviet espionage or about Soviet agents. He wished to deny this morning, he did not indicate that he wished to have any further meetings with Mr. Dulles, although he had ample opportunity to do so.

Colonel Stanley Groves, assistant to Dulles, issued this statement:

"Bang-Jensen had a talk with Bang-Jensen at the time U.N. official, was fatally shot last Thursday in a New York park. Police labeled it a suicide.
